Full Stack Engineer seeking a front-end developer role that best utilizes my creative strengths and eye for design creating beautiful and seamless UI/UX experiences.

EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Engineer - Upside Travel, Washington, D.C.

12/2016 – present

Implement front-end features of main web application in an Agile team environment, ensuring a seamless user experience on responsive screen sizes. Rearchitect legacy back-end travel shopping APIs using clean architecture patterns, reducing code smell and number of bugs reported. Establish dashboards to assist Product Managers and Data Science teams with tracking metrics and analytics.

Web Developer – ECC Consulting LLC

7/2014 – 12/2016

Provided full service WordPress setup and training for small business clients and bloggers. Integrated PayPal accounts, customized themes, and established SEO strategies.

Foreign Service Officer - U.S. Department of State, Bosnia and Herzegovina

3/2012 – 6/2014

Conducted program evaluations within the Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs. Briefed key leadership on critical developments in the Balkans region. Provided embassy support in Bosnia and Herzegovina and assisted with foreign liaison visits.

Senior Internal Auditor - CIT Group, Livingston, NJ

9/2010 – 9/2011

Conducted internal audits of business units, reviewing effectiveness of internal controls from a Sarbanes Oxley (SOX) perspective while coordinating with external audit teams. Briefed members of senior management on audit concerns, followed up with process owners for timely remediation of audit issues, and prepared presentation packages for business unit leaders and Chief Audit Executive.

Advisory Associate – PricewaterhouseCoopers, New York, NY

8/2006 – 12/2008

Supervised a team of 10 associates in transaction analysis of an international bank and uncovered suspicious activity of counterparties as Nigerian bank, odometer clocking and charitable clothing donation schemes, reducing client risk and potential penalties. Interviewed process owners, identified exceptions, and made recommendations for strengthened internal controls.
